21ST CCLC SUMMER CAMPS 2017
(Grade Levels 6th-8th 2017/2018 School Year)

Session I – June 5th thru June 9th

“Surviving Deserted Island”- After hearing the story of a shipwrecked traveler stranded on a deserted island, students will be challenged to design something to help him survive and get back to civilization. Teacher – Becky Kingery; Assistant – Terri Elmore/Angie Suratt; Field Trip Possibility – Red Door Puzzle Rooms, Bowling Green, Ky.

Session II – June 12th thru June 16th

“Winning At Life”- Are you ready to play the real game of life? Join us this week and participate in daily life skill activities such as cooking, kitchen safety, table etiquette, and health and nutrition as you prepare a meal for your family. Teachers – Doug Smith/Leslie Brauer; Assistant – Terri Elmore/Angie Suratt; Field trip and family involvement activity are being planned.

Session III - June 19th thru June 23rd

“Beginning With The End In Mind”- Youth will be exposed to true stories told by teens on how they got jobs, how they kept them, how they managed money they earned, and how they are planning for the future. Teacher – Leslie Brauer; Assistant – Terri Elmore/Angie Suratt; Local guest speakers and field trips are being planned.

Session IV – June 26th thru June 30th

“Inspiring Authors” – Creativity will be inspired and imaginations will be ignited as students are enriched on how to write their own stories and author their own published books using the Write Brain Books curriculum. Teacher – Wendy Decker; Assistant – Terri Elmore/Angie Suratt; Guest author speaker and family involvement activity are being planned.
